BECOME A SPONSOR

We are currently looking for sponsors for our fourth annual Arts at the Academy event. This event will be held on Saturday, May 3rd from 10am-2pm. Arts at the Academy provides an immersive arts experience that brings creativity and community together.

This event typically welcomes over 200 visitors and features student and community art exhibits, live performances, hands-on art activities, and food trucks. It's an incredible opportunity to celebrate the arts while showcasing local businesses and organizations that support creative learning.

As a sponsor, your business will gain visibility among our school community and attendees while directly supporting arts education. For sponsorship levels and benefits, please head

Calling All Local Artisans & Crafters!

Baden Academy Charter School is hosting our fourth annual "Arts at the Academy Event", and we're looking for talented local artists, crafters, and makers to showcase and sell their work! This is a fantastic opportunity to share your creativity with our school community while supporting the arts. This public event includes art activities, live performances, and food trucks.
