Design Show Challenge

Thank you to everyone who joined us at the Baden Academy Design Challenge event on Thursday night! Your support and enthusiasm made the event truly special. Our students created some amazing engineering designs, demonstrating creativity, problem-solving, and innovation. We are incredibly proud of their hard work and dedication!

A special congratulations to all our participants and award winners, including the recipient of the Dr. Ellen Award-- Akiya Hines!

We appreciate your involvement. We can't wait to see what our young engineers create next. Thank you for being part of this exciting journey!
